

REQUIRED UGST COURSES
FOR MILITARY CHAPLAINCY CANDIDATES

UPCI-ENDORSED CHAPLAINS

As part of fulfilling the academic requirements for a chaplaincy endorsement by the United Pentecostal Church International, candidates must complete the following courses at Urshan Graduate school of Theology: BT 501 Systematic Theology I, BT 502 Systematic Theology II, HT 601 Modern Pentecostal Movements, MN 501 Personal Spiritual Disciplines. Chaplain candidates will be granted an Apostolic Studies Certificate (as defined below), but the course BI 520 Biblical Interpretation will be waived. <https://ugst.edu/academics/degree-programs/certificate-programs>

APOSTOLIC STUDIES CERTIFICATE

The Graduate Certificate in Apostolic Studies requires completion of the following five courses from UGST: BI 520 Biblical Interpretation, BT 501 Systematic Theology I, BT 502 Systematic Theology II, HT 601 Personal Spiritual Disciplines, and MN 501 Modern Pentecostal Movements.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

BT 501 Systematic Theology I

An introduction to historical and biblical issues in systematic theology. Special attention will be given to method, focusing on the doctrines of God, Scripture, humanity, Christology.

BT 502 Systematic Theology II

A continuation of study in both historical and biblical issues in systematic theology. Special attention will be given to method, focusing on doctrines of soteriology, ecclesiology, pneumatology, and eschatology. (Prerequisite: Systematic Theology I)

HT 601 Modern Pentecostal Movements

A study of the development of the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries with particular emphasis on the Apostolic (Oneness Pentecostal) movement.

MN 501 Personal Spiritual Disciplines

A course designed to help students recognize the importance of a disciplined Christian life. This course focuses on one's spiritual development; attention is given to the relatedness of the physical, psychological, and social to the spiritual. It is strongly recommended that students complete this course before taking other Practical Theology courses.
